2024 Season; Weather permitting - April 15th thru October 15th

The following rate options are available for those seasonal patrons. The following rates are the only payment options available. The Adrian Campground and seasonal patrons will sign a payment agreement to confirm payment terms. The Purple Sites offer reduced camping fees but additional monthly electric charges also apply. Contact Management for further details.

Favorable weather conditions may create opportunities for seasonal camping after October 15th. In that event, a weekly camping fee of $175.00 will apply. Campground management will communicate a subsequent closing date and patrons will be required to vacate campsites at the time of the campground closing.

The Adrian Municipal Campground is making continual efforts to keep prices down and to attract patrons to Adrian. With that thought in mind, seasonal campers are expected to communicate periods of vacancies so the campsite could be momentarily filled with another patron. Campground management will ensure that campsites will be available when the seasonal camper returns. This will not be a primary option in filling sites and will be avoided if another campsite is available. Busy weekends may require the use of vacant-seasonal campsites if there is a high demand for sites.

Winter Storage

The Adrian Municipal Campground will allow their grounds to be used for off-season camper storage. The fee to seasonal campground patrons is $100.00 and non-seasonal patrons at $150.00. Seasonal campers, interested in storing their camper, will be able to leave their campers in their seasonal camping site. The only exception to this rule is low-lying sites on the southwest side of the Campground. Those patrons may be asked to move their camper to an alternative site during the winter for storage purposes.
